DAVID COPPERFIELD.

Professor Barbour's Delightful Entertainment at the Normal.

The fifth in the course of entertainments at the State Normal and Industrial College was given by Prof. Livingston Barbour, of Rutgers College. Mr. Barbour impersonated thirteen of the characters of Dickens' masterpiece, David Copperfield and for nearly two hours he held the undivided attention of a large and appreciative audience.

A telegram was received late Friday afternoon from Prof. Barbour telling of the impossibility of his coming Monday night. As early as possible on Saturday handbills were printed and circulated and notices of change were inserted in the afternoon papers and every effort was made to inform the holders of season-tickets and the public. The entertainment committee regretted the sudden change of date but it could not be avoided.

He divided the book into four acts of two scenes each and presented the most important features of the work.

The first scene is at the Yarmouth and shows the meeting and parting of David and Agnes, introduces Emily and Steerforth and shows the cunning of the "umble" Uriah Heep and the kindness and jollity of Daniel Peggotty. The second scene is a view of the home life of Mr. and Mrs. Micawber. Mr. Micawber, always sanguine, ever hopeful that something will turn up, laboring under a temporary pecuniary embarrassment, is here portrayed most admirably.

In the third scene is shown the law office of Whitfield & Heep; the cunning, scheming, hypocritical Uriah Heep and his power over his partner.

The fourth scene tells of the running away of Little Emily and the sorrow she leaves behind.

The fifth scene represents a period three or four months later and deals with the sorrowful search of Old Peggotty for Emily.

Scene sixth shows the beginning of the trouble between Heep and Micawber. Here Prof. Barbour represents Micawber as an injured and ill treated individual, who is scheming the downfall of Heep.

In the seventh scene all the sides of Micawber's character are shown when he exposes the low methods and tricks used by Heep to rob his clients. Scene eight treats of Emily's return and the wreck. Martha Endell brings Emily home the very night the ship that Steerforth sailed in goes down. Ham goes to rescue Steerforth and both are drowned.

Prof. Barbour's impersonation of the characters was most happy and showed that he is a possessor of that rare gift of portraying character. He easily changed from the character of the honest David, to that of the sleek, dishonest Uriah; from the hopeful and pompous Micawber to the sorrowful old Peggotty. He kept the audience alternating between laughter and tears and showed new beauties in Dickens' works.

Mr. Barbour closed the evening's entertainment by repeating the story of the affliction of poor old Barnes, as told by his friend at the corner grocery. It was a most laughable story and Mr. Barbour knew exactly how to tell it.

This enjoyable entertainment will long be remembered as one of pleasure and mirth by those present.

A Pointer.

The high art clothiers—the Fishblate-Katz-Rankin company, have completed their immense stock of mens, boys, and youths clothing, hats and furnishings goods, and are fully equipped to meet the demands of all calls in these lines. The first point with this establishment is quality and their prices.

Perfect goods are a primary consideration. They buy in such large quantities that a saving is assured the consumer.

Their force has been augmented by several salesmen during the past week owing to the rush of business.

All the best lines of clothing, hats and furnishings are represented in their stock and its equipment would reflect credit to a Broadway store. A cordial invitation is extended to all to look over the stock before Spring purchases are made.

"Wang" Matinee and Night.

"Wang" was sung on a return date at the Charlotte opera house yesterday afternoon and last night by the same company which gave it there two months ago. If there has been any change in the company since it was here last, it has been strengthened. As to the opera itself nothing need be said. It is a bright and smart, and its music delightful. It was beautifully acted and sung last night, and the staging was capital. The audience "joyed" itself thoroughly. Nobody who can possibly hear this opera sung by this company ought to miss it.—Charlotte Observer.

ANOTHER DAY OF EXPECTANCY

The Stock Market Bordering on a Riot Stage.

CUBANS WILL NEVER CONSENT.

These and Other Matters Talked of Below Comes Hot Over the Wires Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 4.—President McKinley denies the report that the Pope is to act as mediator and has announced that he is hourly expecting a cablegram from Senor Sagasta notifying this government of a formal proposition for armistice between Spain and the insurgents.

Chairman Cannon, of the house appropriations committee, and Representative Grant, member of the same committee conferred with the president at his call this morning.

CUBANS WILL NOT CONSENT.

Washington, April 4.—A representative of the Cuban junta stated today: "The Cubans will never consent to armistice until their independence is recognized and will not cease fighting until then. When their independence is recognized the Cubans will consent to armistice for a settlement of affairs on the island." This statement was made in reply to a query as to what the Cubans would do in regard to the recent talk about Spain granting armistice.

BORDERED ON RIOT STAGE.

New York, April 4.—The stock market bordered on a riot stage today. Prices bounded up on the reports of a "peace message" from Washington. Wall street speculators and their representatives, who get their information from the "highest official source" say there will be no war.

NO MEETING OR REPORT TODAY.

Washington, April 4.—The president today spent sometime in the preparation of his message. Senators Gray and Morgan, of the foreign relations committee called on him after which the former stated that it was improbable that his committee would make any report pending the resolutions in the Senate today. A member of the cabinet said there would be no meeting today, unless the president desires to send his message to congress tomorrow.

IT'S RIGHT-AND DUTY.

Washington, April 4.—Senator Turner has offered a resolution directing the senate committee on foreign affairs to take action without waiting for the president to vindicate the dignity and honor of the United States in the loss of the Maine. His resolution goes over until tomorrow when Senator Perkins, of California is speaking now and in the course of his speech says: "Armed intervention is the only course." Senator Clay says it is the right and duty of the United States to interfere in Cuba.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES.

Washington, April 4.—Senator Clay spoke for the Foraker resolution and said he wanted to put himself on record. During the session of the foreign affairs committee considerable opposition as to the president's policy of delay developed and after much persuasion the committee was held in check.

In the House of Representatives Cannon moves to suspend the rules and pass the joint resolution allowing fortifications to be erected for the protection of private property. Representative Bailey opposed the resolution.

AS TO THE POPE.

Rome, April 4.—The Vatican stated today that the Pope has not formally offered to mediate between Spain and the United States because he has not been requested to do so by the two governments. It is true, however that the Pontiff conveyed to Madrid his ardent wish for the avoidance of a conflict and asked Spain to arrange for a suspension of warlike measures or decision.

ADJOURNS WITHOUT ACTION.

Washington, April 4.—The House committee of foreign affairs adjourned today without action. It will meet Wednesday.

HOUSE WILL ACT TOMORROW.

Washington, April 4.—Republican members of the house say that body will act tomorrow.

EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 4.—Fifteen thousand people swarmed around the capital today clamoring for admission to the galleries. The greatest excitement prevails owing to disquieting rumors. The report that the president's message will favor Cuban independence and intervention has allayed the aggressive republicans.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SPAIN ACCEPTS POPE'S OFFER.

Madrid, April 4.—Premier Sagasta says: "The Spanish government accepts the Pope's offer of mediation and hopes that the sentiment of peace will induce the American politicians to accept it. Should the Washington government refuse, it means war against peace and justice."

NEW CRUISER SAILS TOMORROW.

London, April 4.—The cruiser, purchased for the United States from the Thames Iron Works, is laying in coal and provisions and will likely sail tomorrow.

POPE UNDERTAKES INTERVENTION.

London, April 4.—The Spanish minister gave out a report that the Pope has undertaken intervention between Spain and the United States.

SPAIN TO GRANT ARMISTICE.

Madrid, April 4.—Events are moving rapidly here. Many people here believe that an armistice between Spaniards and Cubans will be proclaimed within two days. The Pope has sent an eloquent telegram to the queen regent urging Spain to grant armistice to Cuba with the view of allowing negotiations to be conducted between the insurgents and the Cuban authorities for an early conclusion of the war and a permanent peace.

BOUND FOR KEY WEST.

Callo, Peru, April 4.—The battleship Oregon arrived here today, one day ahead of schedule time, and will join the fleet at Key West.

THE SHAWNEETOWN FLOODS.

Estimated Three to Five Hundred Drowned.

CAUSED BY LEVEES BURSTING.

Fearful Destruction of Life and Property—Mayor Appealed to Congress for Assistance.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Ridgeway, Ill., April 4.—The magnitude of the flood at Shawneetown, Ill., yesterday, caused by the bursting of the levee proves, as later reports estimated by the mayor just received, that from three to five hundred were drowned. Among the drowned are the family of Sheriff Galloway, wife of Zachariah Meir, Charles Clayton, Washington Collicott, and the wife and family of Paul Phalons.

ASKS AID OF CONGRESS.

Evansville, Ill., April 4.—A man who ventured out in a skiff to seek aid for Shawneetown says: "The levee has shown a weakness for several days. When I passed through the streets of Shawneetown the houses were ringing with the cries of drowning women and children. The whole country for miles around is flooded." Mayor Carney, of Shawneetown, appealed to congress today for aid and says that the town was absolutely destroyed and there is not enough food for one person. Three hundred were drowned. All goods were lost and the situation is extremely distressing. All telegraphic wires are down.

FIVE HUNDRED DROWNED.

Carmi, Ill., April 4.—News received this morning from Shawneetown, Ill., indicate that the disaster was more appalling than it was first reported. A messenger who arrived this morning from there says that five hundred were drowned.

THE RAILROAD FINES

Go into the State Treasury and Not into the School Fund.

The News and Observer was in error the other day in saying that the $1,000 fines to be paid by the Southern and Seaboard for violation of the anti-pass fund. It is provided by Section 12 of the Railroad Commission Act that "all fines recovered under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the state treasury, to be used for such purposes as the general assembly provide."—News and Observer.

Postmaster Killed.

Tallulah Falls, Ga., April 3.—William Godfrey, postmaster at this place was shot and fatally wounded last night by a man named Dyer. According to Godfrey's post mortem statement, Dyer abused him, and upon being told an hour or two later that he had sworn out a warrant for his arrest, drew a pistol and shot him. The ball entered Godfrey's head near the eye. Dyer escaped.

Probable Results of War.

In the course of a conversation today one of the most distinguished of living North Carolinians said to me: "I consider that the driving of the Spanish from Cuba will remove forever from the Southern States the frightful and costly menace of yellow fever. General Lee, I take it, will be given military command of the island until its normal condition is restored. Another result of a war will be the development of the United States as a sea power, most probably next to England. This is not a military nation now. Its conduct after wars show this. The attacks made for years in Congress and by public speakers who are politicians against any comprehensive plans of national defence are lamentable examples. While we talk of acting, England acts. You know and I know well what England would have done about that Maine business. But this will be a military nation, as it has a right to be."

A Sunday Prize Fight in Georgia.

Atlanta, April 3.—A number of sports, mainly from Chattanooga, pulled off a fight in a little town in Walker county this afternoon, which may result fatally to one of the participants. Tommie Chaffery and Jim Parker, two crack Chattanooga colored light-weights, were the participants. Eighthard rounds were fought, and Parker was so badly punished that fears are entertained for his recovery.

COMMITTEE REPORTS THIS WEEK.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 4.—The Senatorial investigating committee, which convicted Hanna of bribery, will make its report this week.

Bicycle Stolen.

A sneak thief entered the yard of Mr. R. L. Hollowell, 906 Spring Garden street last night about dark and stole his bicycle which he had left leaning against the porch. Mr. Hollowell had been out riding and had just gone into supper. When he came out his wheel was gone. The police were notified but no clue has been discovered at this writing. The wheel was a '97 Phoenix.

The Delights of Reform.

The editor of the organ of the Republican party, Rev. Mr. Gibbons, of the Twin-City Herald, begins to realize not only the difficulties, but dangers of trying to "reform" his party. He has had three fights already, and is threatened by the wicked Republican administration which he helped into power with a season in the chancery for carrying concealed weapons. And the organ is just three weeks old.—Raleigh Post.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vansly had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vansly sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

Apparently Mr. McKinley was not born to shine in history as a war president.

Those who say that Governor Russell has no following forget his private secretary.

England does not seem to be much better pleased with her premier than we are with our president.

There seems to be a slight misunderstanding between Mr. McKinley and congress as to which has the floor.

It is understood that the war scare will in no way effect the strenuousness of the contest for the base ball pennant.

Militant volunteers will please note that the onlv path to gore and glory lies through an enlistment in the state guard.

England can establish a claim to superior humanity by pointing out that she gave China an opiate before the dismembering began.

The reports say that the fruit is all killed up in Wilkes. Let us at least hope that the corn crop will escape the blighting tooth of the cut worm.

Efforts of foreign powers to mediate between Spain and the United States are perhaps somewhat crippled by mankind's innate love of a scrap.

Let Jack Frost do what he may he cannot conceal the signs of coming spring. Advertisements of seasonable tonics are bursting into full bloom.

It is alleged that the dislodging of the Spaniards from Cuba will put an end to yellow fever epidemics. It will also put a quietus on other things of saffron hue.

Spain's belated attempt to fix the blowing up of the Maine on the Cuban junta does not accord very well with her former report that the explosion was internal.

General Nelson A. Miles has ordered canvas uniforms for a part of the soldiers. General Miles should be made tailor-in-chief instead of commander-in-chief.

The attention of the jingoes is directed to the unpatriotic declaration of Senator Frye that the Americans are no match for the Spaniards when it comes to lying.

This is the week when millinery estimates and the text "It is not good for man to dwell alone" will be the objects of invidious comparison in the mind of many a happy hubby.

To change his mind is one of the inalienable rights of man and he who exercises it should not be too harshly criticised—Statesville Landmark.

Begging the Landmark's pardon, it has been the current theory that the mind changing business was an inalienable right of woman.

* Mr. Arthur T. Abernethy, formerly of North Carolina, inquires through the medium of the New York Journal, being piqued at the turn of affairs, if there is not some process by which he can be converted from an American into an Ethiopian. We should say that it ought to be comparatively easy to compass the change.

The honorable Thos. B. Reed in the April Cosmopolitan has a most entertaining paper on "The Conquest of Fear." He declares that the greatest achievement of the human race has been in the direction of overcoming fear. The honorable Thos. B. should have waited until the government undertakes to conscript the vociferous howlers for war. He will then see evidences that the conquest is not quite complete.

THE POPE AS MEDIATOR.

Officially Stated That He Has Undertaken the Task.

Madrid, April 3—Senor Capdepon, Minister of the Interior, states officially that the Pope has accepted the task of mediating between Spain and the United States, at the suggestion of the latter, both nations accepting his mediation.

DENIED IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 3—Assistant Secretary Day has authorized an official denial of the statement that the Pope is to mediate between this country and Spain. At the White House the dispatch was also promptly and emphatically denied.

GEN. LEE BE LAST TO LEAVE.

He Tells Key West Steamer's Captain So—Adds That He is Not Fearful.

Tampa, Fla., April 3—The Mascotte arrived here today from Havana packed with American refugees from the Cuban capital. There were many others who would have taken passage but the steamer could not carry them all, so many were left behind.

Capt. Hanlon says that Gen. Lee told him he was not afraid to remain, and that he would be the last American to leave the island in case of war.

By the Call of the Station.

A tall, thin man boarded the California express at Kansas City and settled himself comfortably in the seat of his section.

Occasionally he would glance at his watch, and about every two hours he would walk back to the water cooler and take some medicine.

"What time do you get to Dodge City?" he asked the porter.

"At 10:30 sir," answered the porter.

"What time do you get to Coolidge?" he then asked.

"At 1:12, sir," answered the porter.

"Yes, that's it," said the passenger.

"Call me when you get to Coolidge."

"In time for the man to get up and dress so as to get off at Coolidge," the porter called him.

"Is this Coolidge?" asked the passenger.

"No, but you will have time to dress."

"I don't want to dress; I asked you to call me at Coolidge, didn't I?"

"Yes, sir; but we stop there but a few minutes. Don't you want to get off there?"

"No, I don't want to get off there; I want to take some medicine, and when we get to Coolidge it will be in time to take it."

A North Carolina Bishop.

Approving the News and Observer's suggestion that at the approaching session of the general conference of the Southern Methodist church a North Carolinian ought to be elected to the bishopric, the Concord Times, edited by a prominent Methodist layman, says:

"By common consent, we believe, there is at present only one piece of bishop timber in North Carolina, and this is Dr. James Atkins, at present the Sunday school editor of the Southern Methodist church. He is admirably fitted for his present position, and is filling it to the utmost satisfaction of the whole church. We have many other able men, but when it comes to selecting a bishop from this state all eyes are at once turned upon Dr. Atkins."

Dr. Atkins is a very able man. His sermons in Raleigh at the last session of the conference were splendid specimens of pulpit power.—News and Observer.

CAN SECURE EIGHT VESSELS.

To Compose the North Carolina Mosquito Fleet.

Major E. M. Hayes and Col. E. G. Harrell were detained at the office of the Adjutant General, in the Capitol building, the greater part of yesterday, attending to pressing and imperative official business.

A large batch of telegrams passed through the office during the day and they were of such a character that they demanded immediate consideration, though it was the Sabbath.

The most important development during the day was a receipt of a telegram from Commander George L. Morton, of the Naval Battalion, at Wilmington, giving his report of vessels secured for the mosquito flotilla.

Commander Morton reported that he had inspected all the available vessels in the port of Wilmington and that he could secure eight tugs and two steamers, suitable for the mosquito fleet.

Upon the request of the Navy Department the Governor had instructed Commander Morton to ascertain all available vessels at Wilmington for the mosquito fleet.

The report of Commander Morton was at once transmitted to the Navy Department at Washington. It is expected that an inspector will be sent here at once by the Navy Department to examine the vessels selected by Commander Morton and perfect arrangements for their purchase.

Col. Harrell yesterday gave the Post some idea of the object desired for the mosquito fleet, which is expected to play an important part in the war if war there is. The Government desires to purchase thirty or more of the most available tugs and steamers in the State to patrol the coast and harbors of North Carolina and act on the defensive.

The vessels of the mosquito fleet will be equipped with 4 and 6-pound rapid-fire Hotchkiss guns. They will be manned with from four to six such guns. The fleet will be manned by the naval reserves of the state and will be very necessary to intercept privateers and assisting in the patrol work. The fleet will be able to navigate in shallow water where other craft will not be able to follow.

Commander Morton has requested the department to allow all the commands to be recruited to 86 men instead of 75. Eighty-six is the regular division number in the navy.

Orders have been sent to all the divisions calling for two drills each week.

Interest in the movement of the naval reserves is widespread just now. The fact that the young sailors, whose usefulness in case of hostilities is manifest, have been required to prepare for hostilities on orders emanating directly from the navy department is, to say the least, significant.

The opinion is strong among the military officers and members of the guard here that there will be real war in a very few days, and their ardor and anxiety to be up and doing argue well for the effect they will have when the clash does come.—Morning Post.

WAR IS INEVITABLE.

North Carolina Representatives in Congress Inform Dr. Abbott.
Dr. D. H. Abbott returned from Washington yesterday afternoon,
where he has been for several days past.

In conversation with a Post reporter
in the lobby of the Yarbboro last evening, Dr. Abbott said that the general opinion in Washington is that war is inevitable.

Dr. Abbott talked freely with Senator Pritchard and the other North Carolina Representatives in Congress.
They all expressed the opinion that war with Spain cannot be avoided;
that diplomacy has been exhausted
and that President McKinley is disgusted with the dilatory tactics pursued by Spain.

The people in Washington, as far as Dr. Abbott was able to ascertain, are determined to see Cuba freed.—
Morning Post.

China's Armor-Clad Souldiers.

The board of works, according to a Pekin despatch, has lately been turning out hundreds of steel shields for the Pekin field force. These shields are about the ordinary size of the native war shield, and not much heavier.
They are claimed to be bullet-proof, and within each shield is concealed a sword-bayonet, which can be made to protrude in front of the shield by simply touching a spring. Armed with these shields a body of soldiers, it is alleged, could "charge" with impunity and put the latter to the sword without any harm to the former. This shield is said to be the invention of an officer of the imperial guards, who has declared that "the new weapon will be more efficacious in the field than the usual bayonet charge."—North China Herald.

Business Manager Arrested.

Waco, Tex., April 3—Just before he died, Editor W. C. Braan, of the "Iconoclast" of this city, one of the most incisive, vitriolic writers of the country, who was killed in a street duel here Friday with Capt. L. T.
Davis, whom he killed made a statement implicating the business manager Ward of the "Iconoclast" in the tragedy of that day. Ward has been arrested on the strength of Braan's dying statement and is now in jail here.

Reception to Sigbee.

Washington, April 3—President Mc-Kinley was one of the immense throng of distinguished persons who tonight attended a brilliant reception at the Arlington Hotel in honor of Captain Sigbee, commander of the wrecked battleship Maine. It was a formal reception given him by the National Geographical Society, of this city and President McKinley laid aside work on his message long enough to go over and join the guests.

Vigilante at Key West.

Key West, April 3—Today has passed very quietly and there were no movements of the fleet. Tonight the Nashville will take the patrol, and at all times extreme vigilance is maintained. The first message over the new cable from Key West to the Tortugas was sent today.

LITTLE SISTER.

Little sister's prim and shy,
With a keen and knowing eye,
With a bright and roguish glance,
Sharper than a soldier's lance,
At that glance my faint heart goes Down and hobbles with my toes.
Can she know the boon I seek?
Why I call three times a week?
How she watches all my moves—
Ah, I hope she quite approves!
And she treats me to such airs,
While my darling is up stairs.

She's discovered why I call!
Little sister knows it all!
—Harry Romaine in Ladies' Home Journal.

SHE THOUGHT IT STRANGE.

Nagley Went Out For His Little Walk Anyway.

Nagley threw down the evening paper he had been reading, yawned and stretched and said he guessed he'd go out for a little while, whereupon Mrs.
Nagley said:

"Where are you going?"

"Oh, no place in particular."

"No, I s'pose not. It's anything or any place to get away from home with you. It's mighty strange that you can't content yourself for any length of time in your own home—mighty strange. I was reading this from Goethe today,
'He is happiest, he the king or peasant, who finds peace in his home.' I said to myself when I read it, 'I wish to the Lord Joe Nagley felt more like that.'

"Mrs. Goethe must have been a happy woman to have a husband who could say that. I'll bet a dime she did not have to sit alone evening after evening while Mr. Goethe ripped and paced around anywhere and everywhere, just so he needn't have to be at home with the wife he'd promised to love and honor and cherish, and who had done all she could to make home pleasant for him, and I'll bet Mr. Goethe didn't belong to three or four lodges and clubs that ought to be wiped out of existence, so the members of them would stay at home with their wives, where they belong."

"It's mighty strange that a man can talk so sweet and nice about a home of his own when he's trying to delude some girl into marrying him, and then when he gets her and a home he wants to be on the gad all the time. I say it's mighty strange."

"How many times before we were married did you make me sing 'Home, Sweet Home,' for you, and now if I try to sing it you look as if you'd taken a dose of ipecac. And look at that motto,
'There's no place like home,' that you made me work here we were married so as to have it all ready for our own home. It doesn't appeal to you any more than it appeals to that lamp-post out there across the street. I'd like to know why."

"The land knows I do all I can to make home peaceful and pleasant for you. You couldn't scrape up a tablespoonful of dirt in this whole house, and I'll put my cooking against that of any other woman I know of—yes, I'd put it against Mrs. Goethe's even."

"I'll bet that her husband appreciated her a good deal more than you appreciate me, and I'll bet her home wasn't a bit cleaner than mine, nor her— What's that? What did you say about her tongue? I pity the poor woman if she didn't have a tongue."

"There never was a married woman yet who didn't need all the tongue the Lord gave her, and I don't know what I'd do if it wasn't for my tongue, and—Oh, yes; rush off as usual right when your wife is speaking! It shows just how much you respect her. It's mighty strange how soon men change after they are married—mighty strange!"—St.
Louis Post-Dispatch.

Shaving a Pursued Bandit.

"I shaved Jesse James, the once noted outlaw, down in southern Kentucky a long time ago," said an old gray haired fellow on the train the other day, "when the man's life wasn't worth a penny. Jesse rushed into my little country place, down in the Red river country, one day in the latter part of December and asked me if I wouldn't shave him while he looked after his colt's revolvers and watched the door.
I was not a barber by trade, but those persuaders Jesse had induced me to try my hand

Notes of The Prowler

"I don't understand it at all," said
the Prowler as he came into the office this morning. "The war clouds are hanging low and dark over us and may soon break in a mighty torrent of shot and shell. Anyway this is the way it looks. War is a dreadful thing but the way the Cubans are starving is dreadful too; and the blowing up of the Maine was a dreadful thing, in which over two hundred and sixty people were hustled off into eternity."
"The question that is bothering your humble servant is: what are they waiting for? The blood of those soldiers and sailors is crying aloud and the cry is ringing into millions of ears."

"Last Friday I read in the papers that Mr. McKinley would send a final message to Congress on Monday, sure.
On Saturday I read that he would send it, probably, not before Tuesday or Wednesday, and this morning I read that it would perhaps be sent Wednesday; maybe not till Thursday. But the message will come, as all things must come to him who waits."

But what about some of the other reports the papers have been giving to the public? Last week it was said that the president had sent the ultimatum of the United States to the Spanish government and that it was simply and solely a demand for the independence of Cuba. On Saturday we read a dispatch from Madrid to the effect that no such communication had ever been received by that government from Uncle Sam. Is it possible that the president is playing a "sweetened water" game with the American people?

"It is all a tangled muddle, but it does look like congress and the president could fix it up and fight or not fight. As far as I am concerned I think Spain ought to be licked. Who—what patriotic American can resist
the bloody call of those dead men from the waters of the South Atlantic?"

When we proposed, at this juncture,
to take the Prowler's name for enliment he looked scared and said:

"I am suffering from a severe internal trouble and the doctor says I may have to undergo an operation before long. He thinks the excitement of war might kill me."

On Saturday the Greensboro Rustic
and Artistic Manufacturing Co., erected a handsome lawn summer house on the court house square as an advertisement. It was admired by scores of people and was in reality a thing of beauty. But, alas and alack!
It must have been built on the sand
for on Sunday morning it was an unsightly mass of ruins. We inquired of Mr. Andrews today as to the cause of the destruction of the pretty house and he replied that the board of inquiry had not yet made their report.
A floating torpedo was most probably the cause.

EDITORIAL.

A student plied a college professor with a series of questions to each of which the professor logically replied
"I don't know."
"Why," finally said the student,
"I thought we were sent here for you to tell us what we don't know."
"Young man," replied the professor you are sent here for us to tell you what we know, and that is soon done.
To tell you what you don't know
would be an endless undertaking.
